If you want a pen holder with style, this is the perfect one for any Star Wars fan. This'll make a great gift or personal desk item. Permit Lord Vader to give you your pen/ring/remote/phone etc and hold it for as long as you deem necessary.

This is a remix of the "Low-Poly Darth Vader" from FLOWALISTIK. It was pretty difficult to modify the standing Vader model. I used Blender and had to separate the arms from the body and position him just right. Then I modified the original cape and did cloth simulation to get it to drape correctly.

Print Settings

Printer:

Anet A8

Rafts:

No

Supports:

Yes

Resolution:

0.1mm

Infill:

100%

Notes:

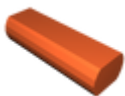

These are the print settings that I used, but feel free to experiment. I highly highly recommend using a brim. There are small parts at the bottom that can break off early on.
