The battery box combines a sleek design with smart organization, making it perfect for keeping your batteries neat and easy to find. It's made for AA and AAA batteries with snug slots to hold them securely in place. On top of that, it has three extra compartments that can fit 9V, C, D, or button cells, giving you the flexibility to store a variety of battery types all in one place.

Compact and space-saving, this organizer works great for your home, office, or workshop. With stronger hinges and a better locking mechanism, it's built to last while keeping everything tidy and accessible. Whether you're decluttering a drawer or organizing your workspace, this battery box makes storage simple and hassle-free.
