Hinged lid stand for Flashforge Adventurer 5M (AD5M) 3d printer. Works with manufacturers' DIY enclosure - just unscrew screws and screw them back with this stand. When stand is not needed, it just laying flat on the back side of a lid. Printed with PETG using 0.4 nozzle.

Looks like layer height should be 0.2 mm - to make hinge function.

Update 08/12/2024:

Uploaded stand's new version (V3), with smaller hinge profile, additional chamfers and locking mechanism when flat.
