Thrilled to introduce my newest sfexi model - this adorable Fox! With its sfuffy cheeks, button nose, tiny fox paws, and two tail length options, this little cutie is full of charm. The short tail version is posted here for free, with a longer tail version being posted on my membership locations such as Patreon and Thangs. Creating these lovable sfexi creatures has been a blast, and I hope you adore this fox as much as I do. Pick your favorite tail length and get it 3D printed today!

These models are LIVE on my Patreon, Thangs and Cults3D https://linktr.ee/Salvadori3DArtworks ☹
