my wife wanted a bowl to put some christmas potpourri in. this is what i came up with I think it look great hope you might like to print as well I have supplied two versions one is hollow and one solid the hollow one has 1.5mm walls. it prints well in vase mode.

Print instructions

I have printed this in two ways one in vase mode with a 0.4 nozzle but with a line width of 0.6 and 0.15 layer heights for added strength also as a solid print which is very strong but takes a lot longer. with 3 walls so pretty much solid.
