This is a remix of the awesome Assassins Creed Cigarette Box by jxcoronel featuring the logo of Force Operation X (FOX) from the Metal Gear Solid Series.

Part 1 is the customised top and Part 2 is the tray piece. I edited the original top to allow for SVGs to be used as a logo. I have attached my Fusion 360 files so you can customise it further. Once assembled the parts are fit super tight and do require you to remove the lid a few times to loosen the fit.

I printed it in white Flashforge PLA with 100% Infill on an Ender 3 V2
