This is a picture frame for a 4x6" photo inspired by the Chicago White Sox scoreboard. I used that as a gift to my dad with a pic of him and I at one of the many games we've been to.

Files and Print details (what I used, I'm sure other settings will work fine):

- Post Inner: .15mm; x7 with colors
- Post Outer: .15mm x7 all black
- Pinwheel Inner: .15mm x7 start with white and color change to RGBY
- Pinwheel Outer: .15mm x7 all black
- Frame Back: .3mm, 20% infill, no supports; black
- Frame: .3mm, 15% infill, supports for top of frame but not interior; black

Assemble each post with pinwheel using the dots to line up the parts before gluing. Insert each post with pinwheel into the frame. Enjoy!
