This is a remix from <https://www.thingiverse.com/thing:2271572>

The original link sketch didn't take into account clearance so they wouldn't slot on properly without sanding them first.

This link gives .2mm clearance for the slot & is 2.8mm tall. I was able to piece together my lamp pretty easily without having to sand the individual parts for fitment.

I also included the .STP file in case you want to further modify the part.
