Summary

This is a dispenser for cotton pads used in medical and cosmetic applications.

Healthcare > Home Medical Tools

I need cotton pads on daily basis for medical reasons. I use those big 500 pieces roles. This is my dispenser.

update 22.04.2023: add cover

Print instructions:

no special things here. Perhaps you have to use some support in the long opening.

additional notes

I'm interested in your feedback to improve my stuff! So give me likes, post makes, comment and rate the print to show others and me how well it goes.

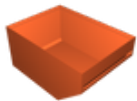

If you post a make, let me know which filament you use.

If you want to support me by donating a coffee go to <https://ko-fi.com/antimaterie> I would really happy about it. The money will be invested in all stuff regarding 3d printing to give more and better quality models.

In general my Prints are not for commercial use, but if you a are print farm owner and want to sell some of my stuff, please contact me.

Hope you enjoy my models.
