A LEGO-compatible weapon from the (sadly) defunct LEGO Universe MMO.

I've been playing the fan-made LEGO Universe revival project, Darkflame Universe, and got inspired to remake my character's weapon.

I grabbed the .nif from the game files, and after some work in Blender, it should be 3D-printable now. I recommend using a resin printer, but if you're adventurous there's nothing stopping you from using a fine nozzle on an FDM machine.

For the Nexus!
