Disclaimer: These models are created with the help of AI tools, but always refined with my own ideas, prompt work, and post-processing for printability. I deeply respect traditional 3D designers and their craft, and my goal is simply to share fun, cute, and enjoyable models with others. I hope these creations bring as much joy to you as they did to me while making them.

Garden Gnomes - A Whimsical Collection of Playful Hand Gestures

Add a touch of humor and personality to your garden (or desk) with this set of original 3D-printable gnome figurines! Each gnome in this pack strikes a different, cheeky hand gesture—perfect for sparking conversations or just brightening up your outdoor décor.

Please note that the final models have reduced detailing.

Some support needed under skirt, arms, nose (and other parts depending on the model)

I made good experiences with drawn organic support.

I'd be happy to see some makes!
