I made this to hold the cubes from Lords of Waterdeep, but I figure it can fit many more games (Pandemic for example). It is a container to keep the resources organized.

- 60mm in diameter;
- 30 mm in height;
- around 28 mm in depth.

The gcode files is in 0.2 layer height and 15% infill to save more material, but feel free to change that for your use. I uploaded the Fusion360 file, if you want to change something to suit your needs. Print as many as you need. Enjoy!
