I wanted to make my desk setup a little more neat and tidy and reclaim the velco tape and tripod affixed to my monitor mount, so I designed this to replace it.

This fits the HUANUO branded triple monitor mount, which you can find here:

The hole should fit most tripod ball head mounts, but in case you need it, this is what I used:

Print instructions:

- Print at 0.3mm layer height

- The more infill the better so it gives it a little more heft in the base and isn't as top-heavy
- Fit tolerance should be fairly snug for the upper part where the tripod ball goes, but sits somewhat loose in the arm hole
