Inspired from the anime Bleach, this skull hairpiece with katana stick is modeled off the mask worn by character Nelliel Tu Odelschwanck early in the series.

Perfect accessory for Renne faire.

Sword handle prints separately and will need to be glued; stick works on it's own without handle. Recommend printing two sticks at the same time to allow for better cooling, or adjust speed near the top.

Needs a small amount of hair to work; works best if hair is already tied up in some fashion.

Updated model added Oct 17., 2025 following feedback: Thinned nose bridge to allow for more space for clipping hair with sword. Slightly thicker sword to be sturdier. One note, eyes are mildly deformed comparatively to allow more room for stick, not very noticeable if stick is in place.
