Fidget Star with Handle — A Tactile Fidget You'll Keep Coming Back To

This isn't one of those fidgets you use once and forget about. The moment you pick it up, the shape just feels right — the edges give your fingers something satisfying to explore, and the handle makes it incredibly comfortable to hold, flip, tap, and fidget with in a dozen different ways.

It's lightweight, durable, and weirdly addictive. The kind of fidget you leave on your desk and find yourself reaching for without even thinking about it.

Perfect for school, work, or just keeping your hands busy throughout the day. Print it in bright colors, dual-color filament, or glow-in-the-dark for a design that looks as good as it feels.
