This is for lucky bastards like myself that got lucky

Made this because I download games at night and don't like just taping the light every time. This cover grabs onto the vent hole that are on the top.

The black one I show is the one I personalized, but I've also included the STL file that's Vanilla. I printed it with a 1mm MK8 nozzle because I'm impatient, I'll probably look nicer if it was printed with a finer nozzle.
