A Cookie Cutter in the shape of the Skull and Wing Logo from Volbeat.

It's a little bit tricky to use, I got the best results by first using the stamp and then cut it out.

The other way around the Dough likes to stick to the gaps in the stamp.

I designed this to be printed with a 0.4mm nozzle. Make sure to set the extrusion width to 0.4, if you set it to a higher value, some of the details might not be printed.

By request of Rolsted :)
