Seahorses are truly magical creatures! They pair bond for life, check in with each other every morning just to see if each is okay, and they dance - you can see videos of them on Youtube, it's marvelous.

Eating sprouts regularly is very healthy and people who sprout regularly call them a "high vibrational food" and report feeling ecstatic after eating them. You can follow - and join if you wish - my journey to encourage the joy of sprouting on instagram @powersprouter.

Thanks for enjoying these sprouting lids. Happy printing - and happy sprouting!
