Summary

This is the energy baton from Futurama. It is a lightsaber-like weapon, although it doesn't cut: it is a blunt object.

This is the energy baton from Futurama. It is a lightsaber-like weapon, although it doesn't cut: it is a blunt object. URL (who I've a model of and will post in the future) and Smitty use them as their primary weapons to stop crime. I designed this in Fusion 360 working off images. This is one of those prints where I'd just paint and prime over and over to get a perfect finish on the model. It'll sand and buff really nice, just will take some elbow grease, or in this case maybe some whale oil.
