Here is another cat helmet for all the those daring cat owners. I included two versions in the profile, so you can choose which you prefer. The one that is cut on the bottom will be an easier print, but you do lose some of the look that the original version gives. It's pretty close though, so nothing major. I just figured I would give the option. If you want dual color it's a very easy paint in bambu. I haven't been adding color version since most people don't have tool changers. Enjoy!
