Summary

Perched raven wrapped around an open bowl - catchall, planter or gothic shelf piece. Print-ready 3MF.

Household > Home Decor

A raven perched on the rim of an open bowl, wings folded back so the feather texture wraps the outside of the vessel. The bird and the bowl print as one piece, and the bowl itself is deep enough to hold keys and coins, a small potted succulent, or a handful of sweets on a side table.

The base is flat and wide, so it sits steady on a shelf or windowsill with a plant in it.

Print settings

- Layer height: 0.2 mm
- Infill: 7%
- Supports: tree (auto)
- Nozzle: 0.4 mm
- Material: PLA
- Sliced for Bambu Lab A1 mini

The included 3MF is sliced and ready to print. Matte black reads most like a raven; grey or white shows the feather detail more clearly. If you plan to put a plant in it, use a liner or a nursery pot rather than soil directly.
