Snack Bowl

A snack bowl designed for the slightly messy snacks — because some of the best ones come with their own rubbish.

The removable insert keeps your snacks on top, while the empty space underneath gives you a dedicated place for shells. Pistachios, sunflower seeds, peanuts, or pretty much anything else that leaves a pile of shells behind — just snack away and drop the leftovers underneath.

The bowl comes with two interchangeable inserts: one large compartment for a single snack, and one with two compartments when you want to mix and match.

There are also two lid options: one featuring a pistachio graphic and one completely plain for a cleaner look.

Features

- Removable insert with hidden space underneath for shells
- Two insert designs: single compartment and two compartments
- Two lid designs: pistachio graphic (separate bodies for easy colour printing) and plain
- Suitable for pistachios, sunflower seeds, peanuts and other shelled snacks
- Decorative textured bowl design
- Easy to empty when the snacking is done

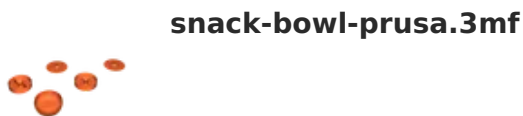

Snacks on top, shells underneath. One bowl, considerably less mess.

Notes:

The printed layers can create tiny gaps where bacteria and oils can accumulate, making thorough cleaning difficult. This is less of an issue for dry foods like nuts than for moist foods, but it's still a consideration.
