Summary

I like the idea of an extension lever using the original knob, but couldn't find one for Encore ESP, so I made this.

Designed for Encore ESP model (the knob is larger), it adopted https://www.printables.com/model/45400-baratza-encore-lever-extension-new-version but change the coffee bean to a dosing cup and https://www.printables.com/model/385311-baratza-encore-lever-extension for the idea of different angle.

I also included a version without any stamp.
