Credit to https://www.printables.com/@nleinad and https://www.printables.com/@QuentinL_4378541 for the originals.

Here I have added some sectional threaded baffles. The idea was to have a separate printable section so you could add as many as you want. I personally have not not tested but I will be soon and will keep this page updated. No idea how the sectionals will hold up. There is a standard version of Quentin's. Also have not tested.

All .5x28
