Tom the Lizard – The Ultimate Dashboard Drama Queen! 🤪

SOMEBODY HIT THE BRAKES!!!

Meet Tom, the world's most terrified passenger!

With his eyes popping out, tongue flying, arms stretched wide, and mouth screaming for dear life, Tom is convinced that EVERY ride is his LAST!

But here's the hilarious part...

Tom has a spring-loaded belly!

Every bump, turn, and little vibration sends his upper body wobbling and shaking like he's hanging on for dear life!

Whether he's riding along on your dashboard or sitting on your desk, Tom is guaranteed to bring some laughs.

Why you'll love Tom:

- Hilarious, over-the-top screaming expression!
- Flexible spring-loaded torso for extra wobbling action.
- Separate printable parts for easy assembly.
- Sturdy circular display base.
- Perfect conversation starter and funny gift!

WARNING: Tom has absolutely ZERO trust in your driving skills! 🚗

Print him, assemble him, and watch him completely lose his mind!

Happy printing, and remember... DRIVE SLOW! TOM CAN'T TAKE MUCH MORE!

Secure the base properly and keep Tom away from airbags and the driver's line of sight.
