As soon as I came across the dummy model of my favorite keyboard all time, the Logitech Craft, I knew I had to download it! I quickly got to work designing the iPad mount I'd always wanted.

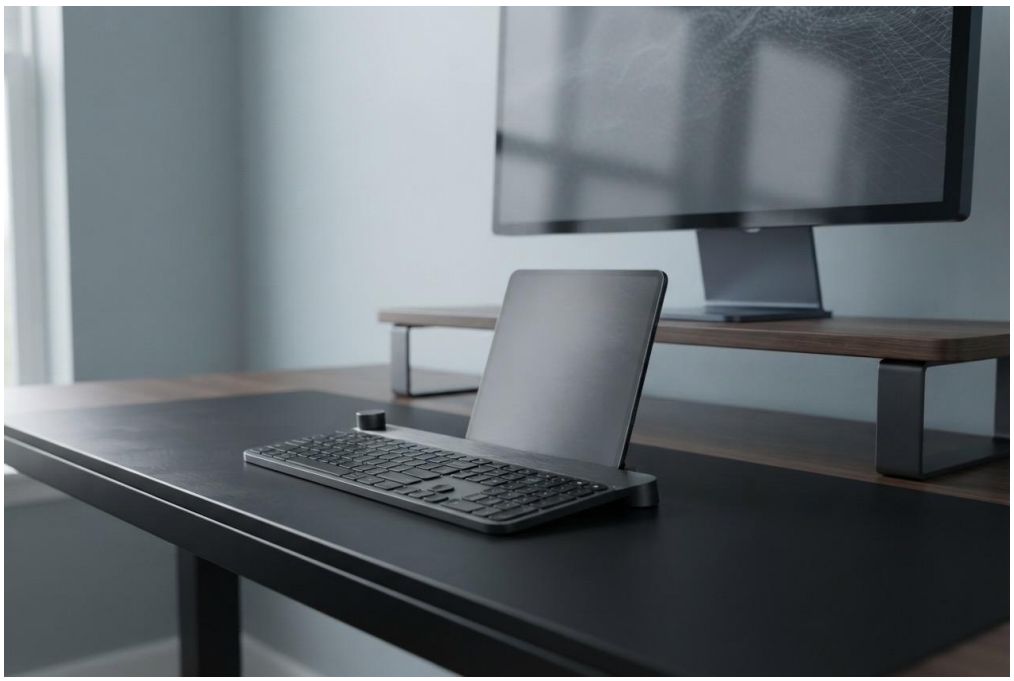

Then I found out there was a design contest, so I thought, why not share my creation?

I'm genuinely in love with how this design turned out! It's simple, practical, and exactly what I needed. I hope you love it as much as I do, and maybe it'll be the perfect addition to your setup too!
