Puma (Pao-yang) Shen is a Taipei mayoral candidate for Taiwan's 2026 municipal election. He has long advocated for caution when engaging with authoritarian government, hence landing him a spot on Chinese government's arrest order list. I thought it's fitting to print his election campaign tags on a Prusa printer with Prusaments :)

I traced his campaign logo with inkscape, then used Blender to create the 3D mesh before importing them into PrusaSlicer for stacking. I printed the tags on a XL5T. Orange and white are printed with standard 0.4mm nozzle, while Black is printed with 0.25mm nozzle.
