A gingerbread cookie shaped like a cute T-rex, with raised icing lines and dots. The back is flat, so it prints with no supports. Put it on your desk, glue a magnet to the back for the fridge, or paint it like a real cookie.

Print notes:

- Tested on Bambu Lab P2S, 0.4 mm nozzle, PLA
- Variable layer height, already set in the 3MF: 0.24 mm for the flat base, 0.08 mm for the rounded edge and icing
- 3 walls, 10% gyroid infill, no supports
- Size: 80 x 68 x 9 mm
- The photos show my white print. Try a brown filament and paint the icing white.

Files: a ready-to-print 3MF for Bambu Studio and a plain STL.

How it was made: the base shape was generated with AI, then cleaned up and prepared by hand for printing. All photos are real prints from my P2S.
