Summary

This is the word mom with hearts for the O. I printed this at 0.2 mm layer height.

I made this for my mother on mother's day. She seems to love it so I thought I would share so others can enjoy. Sorry I did not upload sooner, as I had JUST finished the print in time for mothers day! Assemble onto pegs, though my pegs DID break off (material may have been damp, maybe). The letters fit into the grooves, and a bit of Glue of your choice should be applied. The hearts are held in place with fishing line.
