A co-worker of my wife liked another printing project I did and asked if I could make a Buffalo Bills magnet.....so, here it is. I removed the hole at the top as it was not needed for my project.

I have made 2 different versions (Why you ask? 'Cause I could.....:-)

3 Color print (print each part separately and assemble (with glue of course))

MMU2 (or Pallet) print (all 3 colors at once)

I know I could of just printed the original file using ColorPrint, changing colors at different layers, but I have a MMU2, so why not use it?

I used 2 small magnets that were recycled (from a product box) and the dimensions were 12mm x 1.9mm.
