Here are 2 alternate files for VeniVidiVeni's excellent Spirit Island Miracle Organizer that have 2 fairly specific use cases.

The first is a modified Energy Tray that fits my game map pieces better. The original seems to have been made for a slightly different shaped map, so if your map doesn't fit with VeniVidiVeni's original Energy Tray, try this one.

The second is a modified Starter tray that fits sleeved environment cards. The original would fit unsleeved cards perfectly but was too small to fit the little cards while they were in sleeves. This fixes that without compromising the adjacent container's usefulness.
