Spomienka na staré časy, keď sme o ne hrali v triede, vymieňali farby, ťažko sa zháňali, a teraz si ich viem vyrobiť sám, z posledných metrov zvyšného filamentu, kúsok ku kúsku a vznikne reťaz

A memory of the old days when we played for them in class, they exchanged colors, they were hard to find, and now I can make them myself, of the last meters of the remaining filament, piece by piece and a chain is created

WARNING :Make sure that the first layer holds well so that it does not come off the printing plate. Or you can use a thin collar around the model, it can then be easily removed. I managed without a collar.
