Found that Drunknape's replacement feed tube (<https://www.thingiverse.com/thing:5159444>) improved mag compatibility from the stock feed tube, but would not release the BBs on some of my mags (Maple Armouries PMAGs and Specna Mid Caps) so I extended the feed tube by 1mm.

(Added a "Modular Feed Tube" model to make it easier to make the unit a more snug fit)
