This has been on my ta do list for months and I've had numerous requests for this Helmet.

I've done my best to provide 3 differant variants of the Helmet as evey one likes alternatives, so you now have plenty to choose from. Like everything please check the sizing suits your needs. I think it all looks pretty good as is, but I've left it as a work inprogress incase some suggestions arrise as to any improvements that could be applied. Otherwise should be good to go. Like all these models, this is definately one of my favorites and on my ta do list to print :) Cheers Jace

There is one other particular version here on Thingyverse that I really really like. Created by Carlos. I think its worth mentioning if you want another good alternative choice,
