So I created this model just to use for myself, however, due to recent events I decided that now was the right time. I have three models attached, first is "Coin Full" which is the full two-sided coin. The "Coin Heads" is just the heads side of the coin. Lastly, the "Coin Tails" is just the tails side of the coin. I split the full coin into two just for those who want to split the model in two. This is meant to be printed on a resin printer... but I don't have one so I sadly can give any advice in printing the coin.
