I ordered some Gorilla brand double sided tape and was disappointed that it didn't come with anything to protect it from dust/hair/etc, since the sides of the roll are so sticky.

Features a small lip for the plastic ring in the center of the tape roll to sit on so it doesn't stick to the bottom of the container. The lid is held on by a couple of 10mm x 5mm round magnets that press fit into holes in the stem and lid.
