Not sure if this will work for printing, mostly made it for the modding community and to use in body tracking applications. I only rigged the model, I did not make it.

I'd appreciate if you credit me if you use this for something, but if not I don't mind. Air Raider is property of D3Publisher, so do what you will with this model at your own risk.

If you need help getting the textures to work, follow this video and select the folder I put in the other files section after you've extracted it.
