I remixed the Oculus Quest 2 DAS Adapter for my GoQuestVR Halo Strap (it might work with other type of Halo straps, I suppose they are all pretty much the same).

I did not like the original fitting that was limited in the rotation and also the fact that the Quest would move on the horizontal plane. This adapter allows for precise rotation of the Quest and I'm "locking" the rotation with a velcro strap.

Zipties are not required to secure the Quest to the adapter, but I did anyway. Better safe than sorry.
