This is a Beta!

Print at your own risk!

This is a box for "Coups" the table top game. This box contains the original game and the expansion "Coups Reformation". The box was designed with "quick swap" in mind which means that you can store the original game in the original cardboard box inside of the printed plastic box. This means that when you only want to play the base game you can just take out the cardboard box and leave the expansion inside the plastic box.

Important:

After i printed the box i discovered a flaw in my design that the spaces for all the cards were too small to fit my sleeved cards. And the coup cardboard box didn't fit with both the bottom and the lid (even after sanding and an attempt to bend the walls with heat). So until i fix the dimentions, this will serve as inspiration for other makers (or as downloadable files for the brave ones).
