Summary

This is a Rubik's cube solved by shape opposed to colors so it truly is 100% 3d printed.

This is a version of my 100% 3d printed Rubik's cube that solves by shape opposed to colors. you then truly do not need any extra materials besides filament.

Printing:

Supports are necessary, I used "on build plate only."

Each piece is unique

I used a 0.2mm layer height with a 0.4mm nozzle.

I now tested in petg, it works as well.
