A Potion Bottle for Wizards young and old; measures 98mm high 52mm wide. I designed this for my son, so the original Faceted stopper has runes on it that spell out "WIZARD" I have updated this with a non-ruin version and two alternate caps. I've also added a chamfer to the threads to make lining them up a bit easier. This can hold liquid but droplets may leak past the threads, adding a 20mm food-safe silicone sealing ring will take care of that.

This is designed to be printable with No supports at all, provided all the parts are printed in the upright position.
