The ultimate expression of ego and self-promotion, the Skyscraper Selfie serves as a modern monument to the world's very richest inhabitants. The Skyscraper Selfie transforms the city skyline into an urban Mount Rushmore paying homage to the most powerful. A shadow silhouette plays across the city, showing the reach and power of the builder. Each floor of the structure consists of a single corner office with no compromises made for the rest of the inhabitants that must deal with the odd spaces created by the building shape.
