MODEL DETAILS

This is a Halloween-themed model that is designed to stress test your 3D Printer.

You won't need supports, but you will need excellent bridging!
Keep an eye on this one as it's printing, there's lots that can go wrong 😊
If you liked this model, why not try our other stress tests too?

Coincidentally, a model with a similar concept appeared on Printables a few days before we made our model live. If you liked our model, why not try printing Spider in a Web of "Strings" by Wim V!

RECOMMENDED PRINT SETTINGS

0.4 Nozzle recommended. 0.2 layer height or smaller.

DESIGNER

Designed by Will Hardy.
