Summary

This is a stupid simple fidget toy and a fun way to annoy that special person in your life :)

This is pretty simple, you just print it out then screw up your elbow. Fun for the whole family. This is not a practical print, but if you find a real world use for it, I'd be very interested to see what you come up with.

Printing

Print bolt with threads up and elbow on one flat screw end and provide minimal supports to the rest of the elbow

Filament - PLA

Infill - 10-15%

Layer Height - .25mm

Supports - None

Parimeters - 2-3 works well

Additional Parts - None

Bed Adhesion - None

Rafts - You may want rafts on the elbow at least

Scaling - Scale at your own discretion

Filament Change - None

Post Printing Notes:

If you decide to print this model, please post a make with some nice pictures. I love to see what folks are doing with my models.

Happy Printing!
