The player boxes in Fabmaszter's great organizer worked great until I put cases around the witch pennies and score markers (<https://www.prusaprinters.org/prints/31392>).

So a quick trip to Fusion 360 and ten minutes later I had a larger version of these boxes, large enough to hold cased witch pennies, score markers, the white tokens, a green and an orange ingredient, the four wood tokens, a ruby, and the bottle, in other words everything a player needs to get started quickly.

The boxes now also fill the box completely, and there's still enough space on top for the bags.

UPDATE 10-4-2020: Added a simple box to sit on top of the player boxes to fill the remaining space in the organizers and hold the bags.
