Here is a remix of Taylor Chien's rowboat to fit the story Lost and Found by Oliver Jeffries.

I made this to go with two peg dolls my wife painted to use in her primary 2 classroom.

Print the boat standing on it's stern and no supports are required.
I designed the seat to go into the boat, but didn't print it.
Print parts and assembly with a few drops of CA glue.

Oars are designed just to sit against the edge and not glued.
