HURBAGA!

This Thing is a wearable Aku Aku mask from Crash Bandicoot, more specifically the Playstation 1 era of games. It has perforations in the eye pieces to help you see ahead. Assembly is simple, just glue everything in place and tie in an appropriate length head band. You can also install some padding (sound insulating foam works great), as seen on one of the images to better fit your (or more likely your kids) face!

The individual .STL files are named with the default colors for Aku Aku, but actually they should be printed in the more yellowish tint colors, when Aku Aku is making Crash invulnerable.
