Hello, while I made a can holder I was tinkering with a few other ideas, and this was one of them, a soda can holder that can also hold your dice under it, so this is my first prototype of this idea, as I am in the middle of a move I can't print it out. Still, I wanted to let you all have a go at it, please let me know if there are flaws. Once I am all moved in and have my printer set up I will print it out myself and see how it holds up.

I made it to that you can print out each part, including the handle.
