I really liked Blizzard's Improved Bambu Lab Reusable Spool Holder. For this remix, I added labels for the most common filament types. The text is recessed on the label placeholder on the narrow half of the spool. This is for the narrow half only. You can get the wide half from Blizzard's post linked in this description.

Once again, this remix only includes the Narrow half of the spool. You'll need to get the other half from Blizzard's post linked in this description.
