This is a set of markers to replace the white cubes in Terraforming Mars (including Venus Next and Turmoil).

One of the main reasons for designing these was the fact that the original cubes cover the current value which always bugged me.

I made 2 versions for the dominant party in Turmoil, pick the one you like better.

If you want to print it in 2 colors with a filament change insert it at 3mm from the bottom.

Or just sand the letters a bit and paint it with a permanent marker like I did.

Let me know if you have any questions or comments.
